Leaving you with a finish of sherried fruits and sprinkle of freshly cracked black pepper.

LAGAVULIN 16

32.0 348.0

ISLAY MALT / Alc.43% / Aged 16 Years

Lagavulin isn't 'smokey,' its peat moves into a queer territory of Lapsang Souchong tea and pipe tobacco, fishboxes and kippers. It smells of laurel and light cereal, but is always sweet. The palate shows more creosote, with hints of kelp and a little touch of iodine.

ARBEG CORRYVRECKAN

38.0 408.0

ISLAY MALT / Alc.57.1% / No Age Statement

Deep and peppery, bombarding the tongue. The first plunge brings forth chewy peppered steak soaked in pepper sauce with the tang of crispy seaweed. As you descend deeper, encounter a mouthful of black tarry espresso coffee that coats the palate with rich melted dark fruits and bitter almonds. As the taste soaks in deeper, star anise and hickory dry out the palate before a surprise of chalky effervescent violets fizz to the surface.
