不是被辣到了，只是被麻到了

麻

In the Sichuan dialect, the word "麻" (NUMB) carries a dual significance. It not only describes a particular taste but also conveys the state of being tipsy. This linguistic duality captures the essence of Sichuan people's lifestyle, which is characterized by a blend of spiciness and relaxation. The term "NUMB" embodies their fondness for flavorful cuisine while embracing a laid-back approach to life.

麻不仅代表一种味道，更是四川文化的一个缩影。闲逸、风韵、有进有退的生活态度，与麻辣鲜香的川菜和回味无穷的茶酒文化共同打造一个川式生活方式。

麻(ma), taken from the Chinese term(ma la), means 'numb'. It is the unique numbing sensation of Sichuan peppercorns that adds to the five basic tastes.

Numb is the soul of Sichuan cuisine. As one of China's eight major culinary traditions, Sichuan cuisine is renowned for its numbing, spicy, fresh, and fragrant characteristics. When combined chilli with Sichuan peppercorns, they complement each other, offering diners a distinctive sensory experience.

NUMB名为“麻”，是川菜的第一灵魂。作为中国八大菜系之一的川菜，以其麻、辣、鲜、香的特点而闻名于世。麻的味道来自花椒——这是一种四川本地独有的食材，它的香气柔和饱满，搭配辣椒，互有增色，为食客提供别具一格的味觉体验。
