VINEYARDS OF THE WORLD

BTL

A collection of intriguing wines showcasing the diversity of terroir and wine-making traditions from renowned wine regions across the globe, each offering a unique expression. Best paired with our culinary creations such as the Wagyu Sandwich and Donburi.

Farina Amarone della Valpolicella Classico DOCG 2022 Corvina, Veneto, Italy	185
--	-----

Avignonesi Grandi Annate Vino Nobile di Montepulcino Riserva 2015 Sangiovese, Central, Tuscany, Italy	270
---	-----

Castello Di Brolio 2011 Sangiovese, Central, Tuscany, Italy	298

Amarone, like the Guerrieri Rizzardi Villa Rizzardi, is made using the appassimento method, where grapes are dried for several weeks or even months before fermentation. This process concentrates on the sugars and flavours, resulting in a full-bodied wine with intense aromas of dark fruit and chocolate. It's perfect counterpoint to the savoury umami notes in grilled Wagyu.

The Cullen ‘Diana Madeline’, often called an “Imperious wine” by James Halliday, is a Cabernet Sauvignon blend from Margaret River, a region known for its gravelly soils and maritime climat. These conditions are ideal for producing Cabernet Sauvignon with elegance and finesse, making it a superb partner with elegance and finesse, making it a superb complement to the richness of Wagyu. The 1999 vintage is an excellent showcase of this wine’s ageability.
